Call to Worship

Animals and people gather around a small table or altar in an appropriate place.

Opening Hymn 1982 Hymnal # 405
All things bright and beautiful

Officiant: Let us pray.

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may for love of you delight in Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Lesser Feasts and Fasts)

First Reading Genesis 1:20-25

And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and morning, the fifth day. and God said, "Let the earth

Other Activities for the Day

- Participants might want to look up passages from the Bible that deal with animals. List the animals you can find.
- Read the story of Noah and his ark. Participants could make the animals for the ark and attach them to a drawing of an ark.
- Make origami animals.
- Provide St. Francis pet medals for those being blessed in the service.
- Invite service animals to your blessing and have the handlers talk about the importance of these animals.
- Learn St. Francis' Cantic to the Sun and use it in your family devotions today.

Tips for an uneventful day

- Friendly and well-behaved animals will be welcomed. For those who become nervous, aggressive or who simply cannot make it, they can be represented by photos, etc.
- animals must be under control and suitably restrained.
- animals must have identification in the event of an escape.
- designate a pet toilet area with appropriate clean-up products.
- a small memento of the event for each creature is a nice touch.
- Conduct the blessings in shaded areas if possible.
- You might consider keeping species separate.
- Provide alternative activities for attendees while they wait.
- Pets play a very important role in the lives of our older parishioners and neighbors. Do ask if they need assistance in getting their pet to and from the blessing.
- Take photos, publicize the event in the local media and on your church sign. Pet Blessings are good evangelism tools.
- You might like to make an offering to the SPCA or other animal protection agencies, to your local zoo, or to Project Heifer in honor of all animals today.
- If you serve refreshments, include pet refreshments as well.
- This is a good time to use your St. Francis icon or statue.

St. Francis

Why do we bless pets on this day?

St. Francis of Assisi lived in Italy in the 12th century. Having grown up in a wealthy family, he renounced his wealth and worldly possessions and lived very simply.

When Francis spoke, everyone listened, including the animals. He told the animals that Jesus loved them too. There is a story of a wolf who lived in the town of Gubbio. The wolf came into the town each evening, frightening the inhabitants or eating them. Francis went to speak to "Brother Wolf" and found out that the wolf was hungry. Francis explained that that was not reason enough to eat people and their pets or to terrorize them. The wolf became very gentle, the people fed him and he gave the children in the town rides on his back.

Francis brought us the Christmas creche. In the town of Gubbio, he built a small outdoor stable and put people in the stable to portray Mary, Joseph, the shepherds, the angels. Then he added the animals - cow, donkey, sheep, etc. When asked, Francis said, "Surely the animals praised the new Messiah just as the shepherds and angels did."

And so in honor of this blessed saint of the church we gather today with our animals - our pets, our service animals, police dogs and horses, zoo animals and all God's creatures and give thanks for what they do for us and for what they mean to us.

bring forth living creatures of every kind; cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." and it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. and God saw that it was good."

The Canticle

BCP 89

A Song of Creation Part II

Let the earth glorify the Lord,*
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.
Glorify the Lord, O mountains and hills,
and all that grows upon the earth,*
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

Glorify the Lord, O springs of water, seas and streams, *
O whales and all that move in the waters.
All birds of the air, glorify the Lord, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

Glorify the Lord, O beasts of the wild, *
and all you flocks and herds.
O men and women everywhere, glorify the Lord, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

The Blessing of the Animals

The Prayers

Let us give thanks to God, our Creator, for all the gifts he has given us.

We thank you God, for the sun and moon, the stars and planets.

We thank you God, for wind and cloud, rain and sun.

We thank you God for water - to drink, to play in, to bathe in and for baptism.

We thank you Lord for fire that gives us light in darkness and warmth.

We thank you Lord for Mother Earth who feeds us and protects us. We thank you for flowers, trees, grass, bushes.

We thank you Lord for our pets you have entrusted to us. They bring us such joy, they calm us, make us laugh, play with us and keep us safe.

We thank you Lord for all animals on the earth, for the fish and birds that give us food, help us with our work, entertain us.

Help us be good stewards of your creation and continually find joy and wonder in all your works.

These things we ask in your Son's Name. Amen.

The Dismissal & Blessing

Go as instruments of God's peace. Where there is hatred, sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord; union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Thanks be to God. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Prayer for a Pet

Blessed are you Lord God of the universe. In your infinite wisdom you created the universe and blessed us with all living creatures. I especially thank you for entrusting me with my pet, my friend who brings me so much happiness and whose presence very often helps me get through trying times. Please bless my pet and make me a responsible steward of your creature. May we continue to give each other joy and remind us of your power. As my pet trusts me to take care of it, help me remember to trust you to take care of us, for in so doing we share in your love for all your creatures. And especially, we remember all endangered species and ask your help in taking care of them so that we may continue to appreciate all of your creation. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
